

Restricted Bequest Language

Many LEF friends like to direct their giving to specific needs, such as scholarships, or to support a specific school or distinct program. Restricted bequests are welcomed, though it is important that they have some flexibility, too, as needs and programs can change over time:

I give, devise and bequeath to Loudoun Education Foundation or its successor in interest, a charitable foundation supporting the mission of enhancing educational excellence in Loudoun County Public Schools, located in Ashburn, VA, TIN: [INSERT] (a percentage of the estate, specific dollar amount, remainder of estate after all other bequests & expenses, etc.) to be used for (describe how your gift is to be used, such as for scholarships, to support a specific school or LEF program, etc.). If at any time, it becomes impossible or impractical for my gift to be used for the above charitable purpose, LEF shall use my gift for a purpose and in a manner that most closely meets the above charitable purpose.
