You Inspire Loudoun

Friday, June 18 at 8:30 am at Belmont Middle School, Riverside High School, & Online

Inspire Loudoun is a teacher-driven professional development day where Loudoun County Public Schools (LCPS) teachers share best practices in teaching with technology. The conference hosts more than 1,000 teachers annually who exchange ideas on deeper learning/distance learning strategies, collaborative techniques, personalized learning, and project/problem-based learning, using various instructional technology tools for teaching and learning, and much more. This teacher-run conference on a non-contract day demonstrates the power of educators who collectively want to learn more about the effective use of technology to improve instruction and support student achievement.

LCPS will host the 2021 Inspire Loudoun conference in-person (two neighboring school campuses) and online to ensure all of its participants' safety in this COVID-19 environment. In-person attendees will practice all social distancing requirements to include mask-wearing and remaining six feet apart. We are offering your company the opportunity to participate in-person or virtually to satisfy any COVID-19 policies applicable at this time. Either way, Loudoun County Public Schools and the Inspire Loudoun planning committee is ready to be your host.

Your company's sponsorship of Inspire Loudoun suggests that you are a forward-thinking, industry-leading entity that wishes to improve the partnership continually. This meaningful relationship will be on display at this year's conference and will assist teachers as they prepare future graduates in their ability to Critically think, Collaborate, Communicate, Creatively think, and operate as productive Citizens when leaving the school division (Virginia's 5 C's). Consider each of the session sponsorship opportunities below, and thank you for your kind consideration.
